ST. DAVID'S DAY

February 28, 2021 | from 3 pm

Join us on Zoom on Sunday 28th as we celebrate both St. David's Day and our 40th anniversary.

Let's celebrate together by looking over some of the key moments in the society's history, enjoying some videos sent in to us, including music by Paul, and more!

A wonderful opportunity to get together safely and meet old and make new friends.

Surprise prizes for the first, second, 18th and 30th sign up!

Please RSVP to japancds@gmail.com by February 26th and we will send you the Zoom link

We are hoping you will all help us make this first Zoom St Davids day as successful as we hope it will be.

Please join us and share our national Day with greetings from

- Jane Hutt MS, Deputy Minister and Chief Whip,
 - Sir Bryn Terfel - many of us will remember meeting his wife Hannah Stone, the royal Welsh Harpist a few years ago.
 - Koji Tokumasu - the Welsh envoy to Japan
 - our founding President Madoc Batcup
- ...and other very special people for us in the St David's society.

This event is going to be fun!

Not to mention you have a chance to win one of these>>>>
Welsh made face masks and Japanese made Welsh Sake!

We will be launching a new adventure for our society and we invite you to join us for a regular monthly interactive program of interesting events.

We will host a program every third Thursday of the month from 9pm JST starting on Thursday 18th of March.

YOU may suggest topics and join in discussing issues of interest. Our first program will showcase the Huw Edwards BBC program the History of Wales. And discuss a topic of interest from the news to Join us. The link will be sent out in our March Newsletter so keep the 18th date! We will see how this goes if enough of you enjoy this we will continue and expand to include a Sporting section!

Talking about SPORTS

here is a list of All the Welsh ATHLETES competition in the British team for this years Olympics. Just so we can keep track of them!
